FOREWORD . . .

The sifting sands of the hour-glass have reached the midway mark . . . our civilization is halfway into the twentieth century. These first fifty years have been memorable ones filled with change and invention. The next fifty . . . ? We can only guess what scientific magic will be performed.

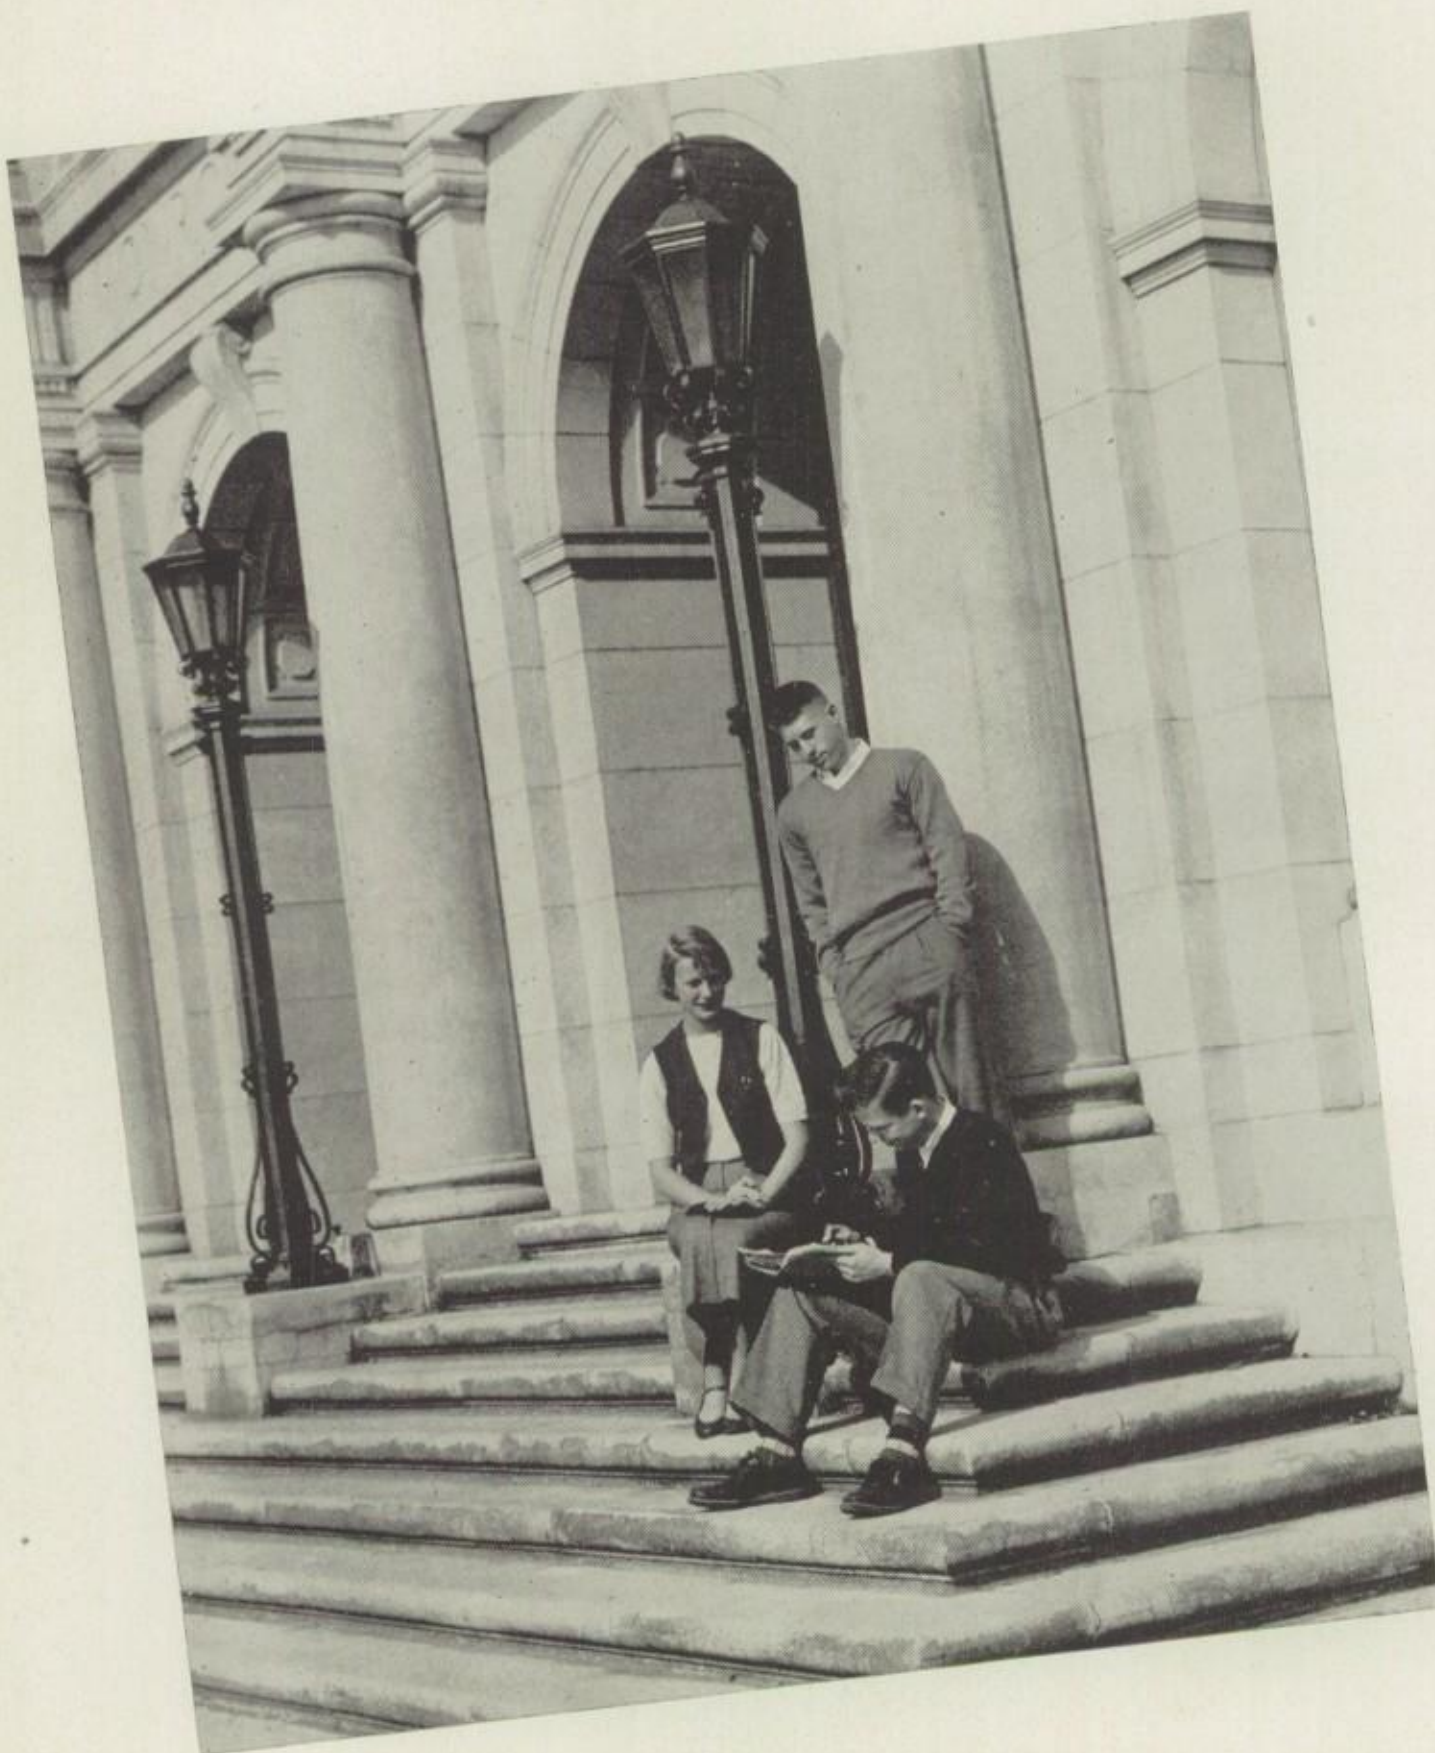

It is fascinating to look into the past and future, but it only brings more sharply into focus the incidents of the present. We give you Mid-Century MAD-ness with the hope that we have captured the spirit of today . . . 1950 . . . a year which will remain for all of us . . . unrivaled and unforgettable.

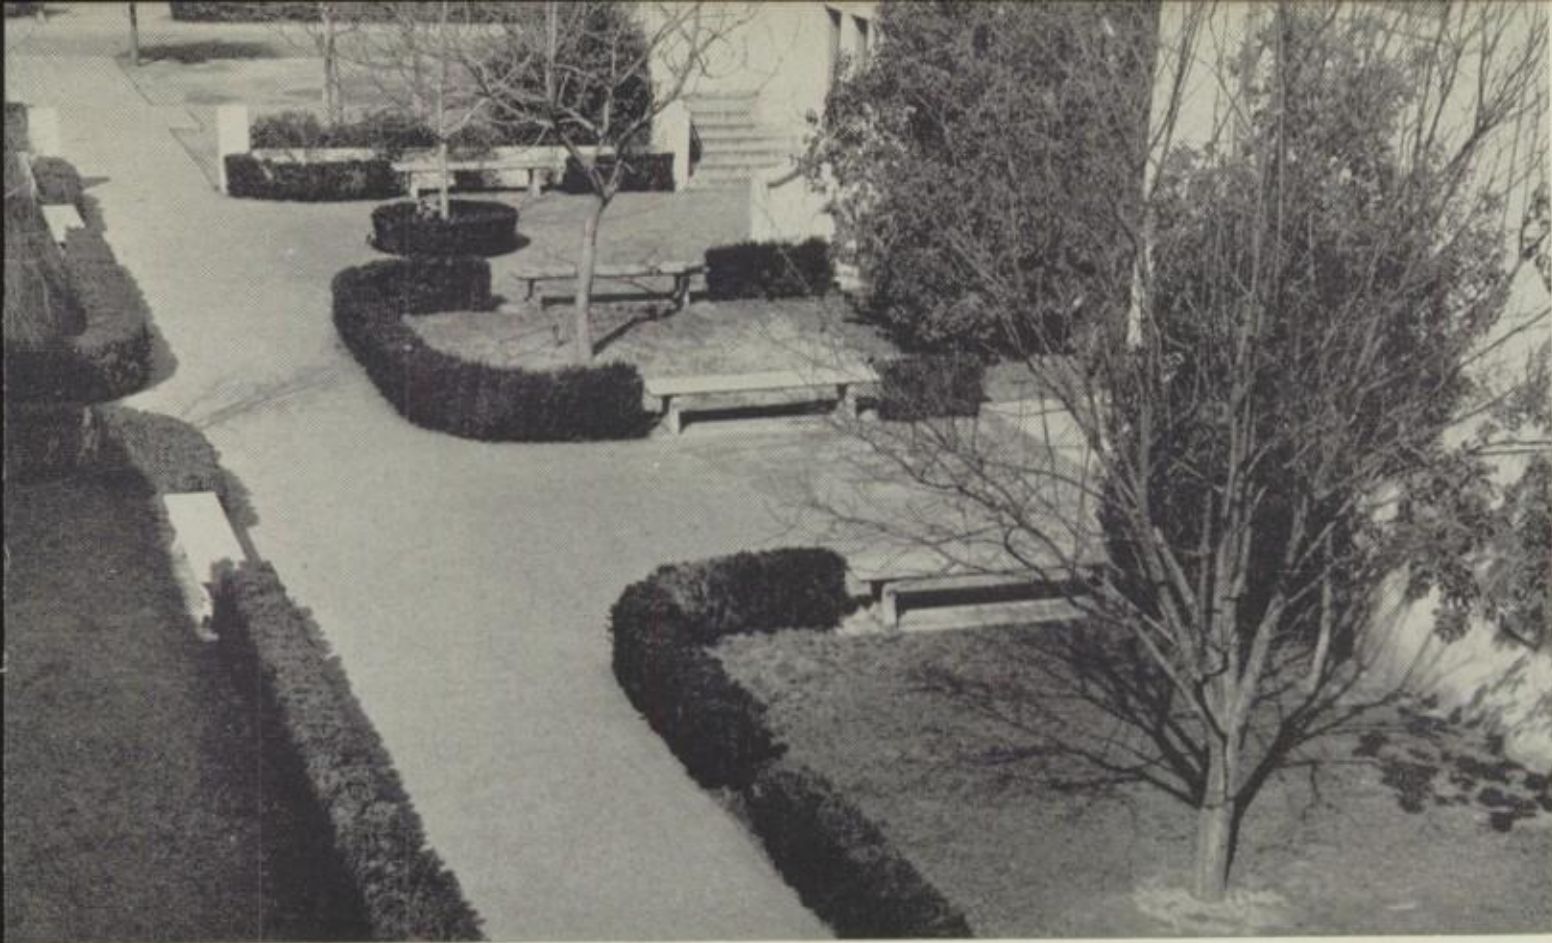

DEDICATION . . .

As all loyal service should be recognized, so too should the time and effort willingly spent by our faculty advisor be brought to the attention of all in this his final term as yearbook representative of the administration. Few have realized the difficulties and responsibilities accompanying this position. Throughout the past eight years he has kept his warm sense of humor, his good judgment, and his liberal policy of student guidance. Those who have known and worked with him appreciate his real ability. With affection and high regard we dedicate our Mid-Century Annual to . . .
MR. THOMAS W. GRIFFIN.

SPIRIT

SUPERINTENDENT-PRINCIPAL . . .

Patient and Praiseworthy

Through the successful guidance of our principal and superintendent, Mr. Stanley McClintic, our Mid-Century spirit has been elevated to the highest peak. Keeping the welfare of the growing student body uppermost in his mind, he has helped to make this year one rivalled by none in the history of the school. Through his effort to serve us, Mr. McClintic deservedly has the respect and admiration of every MADite.

ED LEADERS

VICE-PRINCIPAL . . .

Commendable and Congenial

During his two years at MAD, Mr. Max Forney has proved himself a capable and experienced administrator. As vice-principal, he is constantly in contact with students and their affairs. In all activities Mr. Forney has unfailingly demonstrated an enthusiastic spirit, genial personality, and unbiased attitude.

DEAN OF GIRLS . . .

Sincere and Sympathetic

Known for her keen interest in the individual student and student affairs, Miss Ruth Foreman is an outstanding figure on the campus. Unselfishly and willingly giving her advice and time, she has won a definite place in our memories.

DEAN OF BOYS . . .

Understanding and Untiring

In the years that Mr. Robert Manning has brightened our MAD campus, he has proved one of the most popular members of the faculty. As an understanding dean, he has devoted endless time and effort to the boys and their problems.

COUNSELORS . . .

Tactful and Tolerant

From the beginning to the end of our high school career, our counselors, Miss Clytis Cummins and Mr. Glenn Grout, have encouraged and directed us in our proper courses of study. Their object is to produce for all a well adjusted life after graduation.

RESEARCH AND GUIDANCE . . .

Helpful and Hardworking

New to MAD this year, Mr. Henry Molino has innovated many ideas and activities. In his capacity as Director of Research and Curriculum he was instrumental in arranging many field trips. He was also responsible for administering Iowa tests to the sophomores and seniors this year.

ATTENDANCE OFFICE . . .

Considerate and Competent

The unselfish guidance of newly appointed Director of Child Welfare, Robert Mackey and the Attendance Office Staff, Peggy Wright, Mrs. Lewis, and Charlie Kramer, has done much to create better conditions and standards of attendance in our MAD world.

EVER

SECRETARIAL STAFF . . .

Cooperative and Capable

Keeping things going smoothly are our competent and attractive secretaries. Row 1: Mrs. Smith, Miss Eckhart, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Boyer, Mrs. Chamness, Miss Higel. Row 2: Mrs. Logsden, Mrs. Kaufman, Mrs. Edwards, Miss Taggart, Miss Weigel, Mrs. Hanft, Miss Oxender.

Der Eckhart

BUSINESS MANAGER . . .

Economical and Experienced

Finances here at MAD have in the last two years become "big business." E. W. Parmelee as business manager has very capably filled the position. From activity card sales to malt shop profits Mr. Parmelee is always on hand.

WILLING

ENTERPRISING EDUCATORS

Once again, as in the past, the faculty of our high school has shown itself to be more than willing to do a great share of the work it takes to maintain an institution as large and as outstanding as MAD. The teachers have displayed a wonderful spirit and enthusiasm as they have devoted long hours of their own time to many school and extracurricular activities. Much of the success of our dances, clubs, and athletic activities has been due to the helpfulness of MAD's teachers. Heartfelt thanks to all the loyal teachers who have shared with us . . . Mid-Century MADness.

A.S.B. PRESIDENT . . .

Warmhearted and Willing

During the A.S.B. election campaign of 1949 a huge poster appeared boosting Bunny Gillett — "Sincere throughout the year." Chosen to guide us through this year of Mid-Century MADness, Bunny has truly lived up to his pledge of sincerity, making MAD life, his life. Many new features, including the "E" flag and "Hi Week," were a part of our Gillett administration. His honest effort and sheer hard work have justly earned for him the high honor of being top man in our Mid-Century world.

A.S.B. CABINET . . .

Spirited and Steadfast in Purpose

Our "council of twelve" this year was so ably chosen that it has capably handled jobs that previously were extra burdens for the student body president. Cooperating well, this outstanding group has solved many school problems in its weekly meetings.

ROW 1: Pat Hargett, Judy Draper, Jean Lockwood. ROW 2: Bob Gates, Jim Kovacs, Tony Wynn, Milan Moody, Jim Regan, Ian Campbell. ROW 3: Larry Larson, Bunny Gillett, Richie Humble, Everett Adams.

VICE-PRESIDENT . . .

Diplomatic and Dependable

This year's necessary double assembly program has brought with it added duties for our vice-president, Richard Humble. His chief responsibility, however, has been presiding over the House of Representatives. Accomplishing his work with a diligence found in few, "Rich" has been looked upon as one of our finest vice-presidents.

DEMOCRACY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES . . .

Active and Able

Acting as a link between the students and the administration, our House of Representatives was an excellent example of democracy in action. The nine elected members, together with the four class presidents, has worked in harmony to maintain a well-organized government.

ROW 1: Jim Kovacs, Kitty Armstrong, Judy Tietz, Joan Price, Janet Anderson, Richie Humble.

STUDENT COURT . . .

Impressive and Impartial

JUDICIAL SYSTEM

The height of achievement in student government was reached this year by the student court and the newly initiated commissioner system. The commissioners under the direction of Ronnie Mowry and Miss Beck have closely cooperated with the student court, headed by Chief Justice Don Hansen and counseled by Miss Dort.

IN ACTION

COMMISSIONERS . . .

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Stimulating interest and playing an important role in the over-all picture of MAD unity is the Girls' League. Under the exceptional leadership of its president, Judy Draper, the well-organized league has enjoyed a successful year. For every girl there will be lingering memories.

BOYS' LEAGUE

The enterprising Boys' League, working in conjunction with the Girls' League, has done much to further the spirit and enthusiasm in the student body. Headed by an efficient president, Jim Regan, the league has come forth with well-planned ideas. Heading the activities, many outstanding assemblies will be remembered.

MONARCS

The twenty outstanding boys who make up the membership of the Monarcs hold one of the greatest honors that can be bestowed upon any senior boy. They were selected because of their fine records in athletics, activities, and scholarship. This year Larry Larson and Bob Maxwell were their leaders.

Annually, they sponsor the Christmas dance with the Madquins and also as a tradition crown a Monarc queen, who this year was Beverly Gould.

ROW 3: Hirohata, Davis, Bowers, Hall, Lockwood, Clark.

HON

MADQUINS

MAD's Madquins, the most honored organization for girls in the school, climaxed a completely successful year with the co-sponsorship of the Winter Waltz. The girls, all seniors, were chosen on merits of friendliness, spirit, interest in school affairs, and scholarship. Led throughout the year by Beverly Gould and Janice McCaughna, the Madquins rendered much service decorating at football games and ushering at other school and league functions. They chose Ed Gillenwaters to rule as their king.

GAL

The mysterious land of galley proofs, dummies, and pica sticks is familiar territory to these hardworking journalists. Under the capable and efficient editorship of Helen Hirohata they recorded MAD mid-century events for Friday morning's Wildcat (which eventually made its distracting way into every Madite's first period class).

Editor-in-chief Helen was assisted by managing editor Pat Sullivan, associate editors Elsa Seifert, Stan Cornyn, and Janet Anderson, and sports editor Jack Jessen. Faculty advisor Mrs. Thelma Thompson was also instrumental in raising the standards of the Wildcat.

A CAPPELLA

As instrumental as victories on the court or gridiron in bringing fame to MAD has been the record of shining achievement attained by our vocal music department. Under the exceptionally talented guidance of Mr. Chester Ullom, assisted by Mrs. Bette Graeme, our two top groups, the A Cappella and the Concert Choir, time and again proved their superiority as they sang for many public functions, radio programs, and various student assemblies. The younger group, the Mixed Chorus, provided a training period for the more immature voices that one day might carry on our outstanding traditions in music.

The loyalty with which the members of these groups, their leaders, and their faithful and gifted accompanist, Carolyn Foddrell, served the department and our school brings just recognition to them.

SENIOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA

New zest and outstanding talent came to MAD this year in the person of Mr. Evan Williams. Now an established figure on the campus, Mr. Williams has led our Senior Band to new heights of achievement. Once again he and Senior Orchestra director, Mr. Harold Scott, helped us maintain our exceptional record of performance in school functions and in competition with various other musical organizations about Southern California.

For the first time in many years the Senior Band gave a concert, the outstanding "Springtime Serenade." The orchestra added the finishing touches to such important programs as graduation and the plays.

JUNIOR BAND AND ORCHESTRA

To provide training for prospective members of the Senior Band and Orchestra groups was again the goal of MAD's Junior Band and Orchestra. The talented efforts of their instructors, Mr. Evan Williams and Mr. Harold Scott, afforded instruction in the fundamentals of instrumental music to these young students. If the enthusiasm and hard work of these two junior groups are any indication, MAD's musical future is indeed bright.

"Mother Is a Freshman"

This year, marking the beginning of the second half of the century, found the name Thespians once again synonymous with outstanding and distinctive drama. Aided by the exceptional coaching of Mrs. Margaret Wood, the group gave the school dramatic presentations that will be long remembered.

Based on an old legend, the poignant drama, "The Star in the Window" helped to spread the good fellowship and cheer of Christmas throughout the school.

Remember, "If I'm a sophomore, how can I have a mother who's a freshman?" No one can easily forget that line or the clever solution to the unusual predicament as it unfolded into the three act comedy, "Mother Is a Freshman."

Also long remembered will be the captivating League play, "Every Family Has One," which created much laughter and applause. The family included many lovable personalities that were ably interpreted by an outstanding cast.

This year, marking the close of a half century, also has marked the height of success for MAD's SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY. The sixty members with the help of their presidents, Bruce Munn and Bob Ryan, and their advisors, Miss Gladys Jahr and Mr. Robert Long, have upheld the high standards set by their organization.

As highlights of their year, the Mental Madcats enjoyed two well-earned ditch days and the annual Gold Seal Banquet. They also sponsored a basketball game.

POLICIES FOR

The USHERS were organized for the purpose of keeping order in our weekly assemblies and ushering at evening programs.

This group, headed by Steve Brodie should be commended for doing such an outstanding job this year.

As its name implies, the KEY CLUB actually does serve as a means for opening doors...doors of opportunity for boys who show certain abilities for leadership. One of MAD's most important service clubs, it is sponsored each year by the National Kiwanis Club. The group's weekly meetings, which featured pot-luck dinners, have been ably presided over this year by Ian Campbell.

Organized to train young Americans in the ideals and mechanics of our democratic way of life, the JUNIOR STATESMEN organization had a year filled with achievement and activity. With Mr. Kenneth Scheel as faculty sponsor and Judy Tietz presiding, the group took a deep interest in campus problems and sent delegates to the district and state conventions.

BETTERMENT

Composing its membership of the majority of sports-minded males of MAD, the LETTERMEN CLUB has taken its place among the active honor organizations. Under the guiding hand of President Bob Bills and his cabinet the monthly meetings offered sports movies, games, and speakers. Mr. Verl Murray was again faculty sponsor for the group.

The G. A. A. calendar this past year has been packed with activities. With the fall of the year came the El Monte Play Day planned around the Wizard of Oz theme. This spring for the first time the G.A.A. introduced a theme for its initiation. Amid laughter and embarrassment the girls paraded around the campus in kindergarten costumes. An award dinner culminated a year of successful capers that were inspired by President Janet Anderson and advisor Mrs. Thelma Yenney.

This year it has been the designated task of MAD's TRI-HI-Y COUNCIL to formulate plans for the activities of the Hi-Y and Tri-Y groups in the Santa Anita Y.M.C.A. District as well as to represent the area at State conventions and regional assemblies. Acting as chairman, Ed Gillenwaters was an efficient co-ordinator, and aided by Mr. Pierre Kenyon, the Council laid the framework for one of the most enthusiastic "Y" years on record.

No other organization could have been found more energetic and enthusiastic than this year's combined CIVITAN and CIVINETTE groups. They were responsible for staging the unique "Sock Hop" dance, a benefit show, and a Christmas party for underprivileged children. Their faculty advisors were Mrs. Isabel Beckman, Mr. John Simmons, and Mr. Keith Broaders. Their student leaders were Dave Knutson and Ann Brown.

Today, more than ever before, promoting friendship and understanding among the peoples of the world is a matter of utmost importance. MAD's WORLD FRIENDSHIP CLUB this year has done its part to further better relations by corresponding with students in foreign countries. Many activities were planned by President Winnie Coyne and met with much success.

The traditions of our feminine tennis world were once again upheld by the skilled members of the CATSKILL RACKETEERS. Membership is highly competitive, and the girls worked hard to have their names added to the club's roster. They were headed this year by Mrs. Ethel Brelos and prexy Barbara Stewart.

LOS BUENOS VECINOS, MAD's Spanish Club, has provided a chance for all those with a deep interest in the Spanish language and culture to get together. This year the Vecinos enjoyed a trip to Olvera Street, the opera Carmen, and several Spanish movies. Nedra Seymour presided over the group, and Miss Cryssie Hotchkiss again served as sponsor.

M

Organized to promote better sportsmanship in all athletic contests, the BLOCK M took shape and was molded into one of the most outstanding Mid-Century Clubs for boys. Providing the necessary leadership, "Dink" Walker and Everett Adams planned activities that were well enjoyed by the members. The club is restricted to those athletes earning 300 points in competitive sports.

Mr. Burcham and his green-clad STAGE CREW deserve an unlimited amount of credit for the success of the '49-'50 plays and assemblies. Although they work behind the scenes, the results of their efficiency have been apparent in all MAD productions.

The SPEECH ARTS CLUB, sponsored by Bernice Carpenter, was organized to further intra-mural and inter-scholastic speech contests and to offer interested students an opportunity to learn to give and criticize speeches. With Lawrence White in executive position, the group met twice a month this year.

Attracted by the fascinating world of science are the members of the MAD SCIENTISTS. Scientific interests which began in the classroom were given a chance to develop more fully in this organization. Under the direction of Mr. Ward, Mr. Dunson, and President Bruce Munn, the group enjoyed films, field trips, and lectures connected with science.

Ever increasing in membership, activities, and interest, the HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION has become a key member in MAD's club system. Chief events of the H.S.C.A. year were a welfare assembly for the children of Okinawa and a well-attended banquet in the spring. Beverly Dierlam and Mr. Harvey Brubaker served the group ably as student and faculty heads.

Topping all athletic organizations for girls is MAD's select club . . . CIRCLE M. Membership is gained through long but enjoyable hours of basketball, baseball, speedball and volleyball, for which points are given. Each girl must earn 1800 points and be subjected to a much dreaded initiation before being admitted to the coveted society. Headed by Diane Ferris and sponsored by Mrs. Thelma Yenney, the club has offered great companionship for the girls.

PROGRESS THROUGH PASTIMES

Enjoying many club programs and extra activities, this year's CALIBEES have held their place among the leading groups of the school. Mainly a social club, they sponsored a winter dance along with various other parties throughout the year. Advisor Mrs. Marion Michel and President Kazon Montgomery were their leaders.

To develop a deeper interest and ability in photography as a hobby was the purpose of MAD's CAMERA CLUB. To the fulfillment of this end, Mr. Henry Molino and his "shutterbugs" added a dark room and photographers' laboratory to the group's equipment and also sponsored several popular snapshot contests.

Worthwhile, entertaining books have offered an interesting means of gaining wider knowledge for the members of the BOOK CLUB. Their sponsor this year was Mrs. DeMerre, and their officers were Marilyn Griffin, president, and Peggy Micue, secretary.

Among those clubs organized for the enjoyment of students particularly interested in an outside field is the PIANO CLUB. Taking active part in assemblies and programs, its members have gained both experience and pleasure under the guidance of President Mary Jo Burns and sponsor Jut Williams.

MAD is the proud possessor of one of the most complete high school WEATHER BUREAU units in Southern California. While predicting the weather for this locale these amateur meteorologists learn the mechanics of this science under the patient guidance of Mr. Charles Dunson. Several valuable field trips as well as monthly meetings were planned through the leadership of head "weather-watcher" Bob Ellis.

Just as visual education has become an important part of education the PROJECTION AND AMPLIFIER CREW has become increasingly important to MAD. These boys, directed by Mr. Burcham, deserve the appreciation of the school for doing such a competent job of running the necessary films.

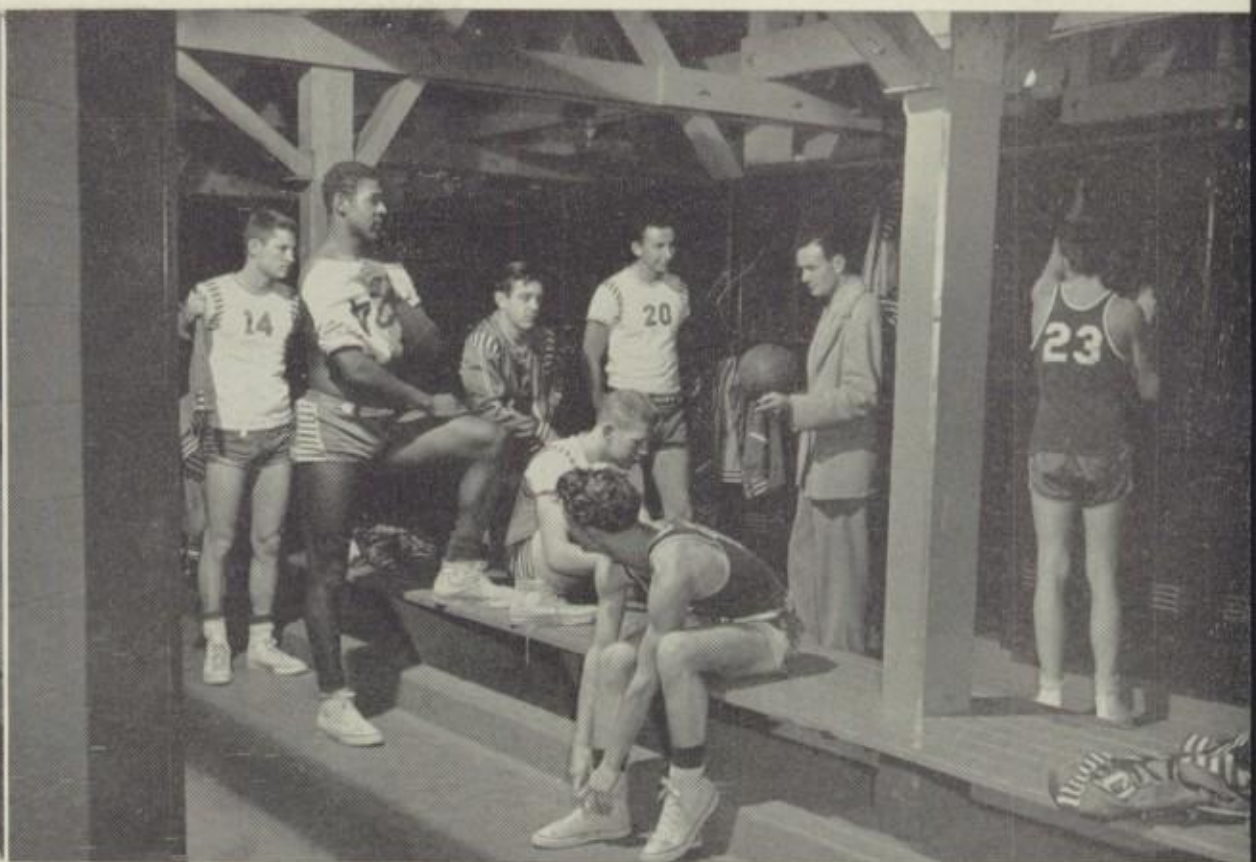

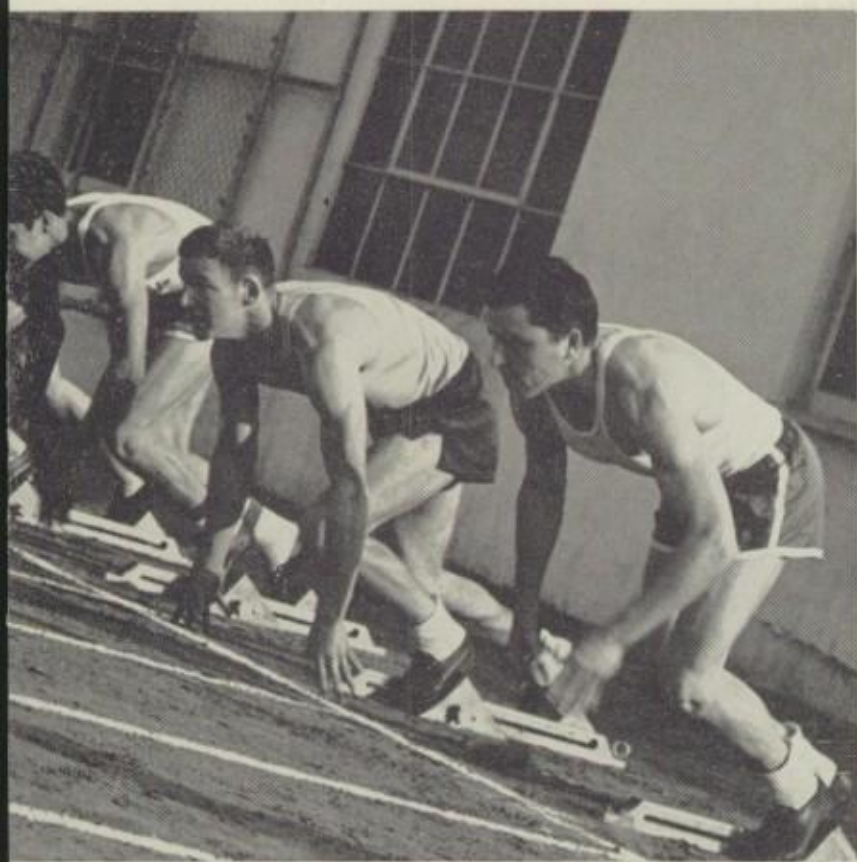

Seven interesting meetings were held by the ART CLUB through the careful planning of President Ronald Becker, secretary-treasurer Doris Creer and faculty sponsor Dorothy Clemmons. The group enjoyed art speakers, art school exhibits, movies and demonstrations.

Training students to be more familiar with the library and its system is the main objective of MAD's LIBRARY CLUB. Members spend their extra periods working in the library and learning the procedure. Aside from getting extra credits, the club enjoys many social functions. Our librarian, Mrs. Kindy, is the able director.

SONG LEADERS . . .

Lovely and Lively

Placing first in the league of precision and originality, our song leading sextette, Judy Howland, Marjean Brownwood, Lois Simpson, Carol Caward, Ann Antista, and Harriett Heisler, have sparked all our games and pep rallies with their snappy outfits and peppy routines. They should be commended for the fine spirit and cooperation they have displayed throughout the year.

YELL LEADERS . . .

Active and Agile

Don Stevens, Jo Ann Lawson, Dave Pittman, Elsa Siefert, and Rolland Moody with their perpetual pep have raised the school's spirit to new and greater heights during the past year. Whether at a pep rally, assembly, or a sports event this quintette displayed incomparable enthusiasm, loyalty, and sportsmanship.

MAJORETTES

Receiving unanimously the title of best in our history, this year's majorettes were truly a credit to the school. With Mert Williams as head majorette the girls, Betty Walter, Lulu Lamatrice, Lynn Brown, and Shirley Lacey did an exceptionally fine job. Blending their talent with that of the Pep-cats' and band's, the majorettes helped to make this year's football halftimes colorful, impressive spectacles.

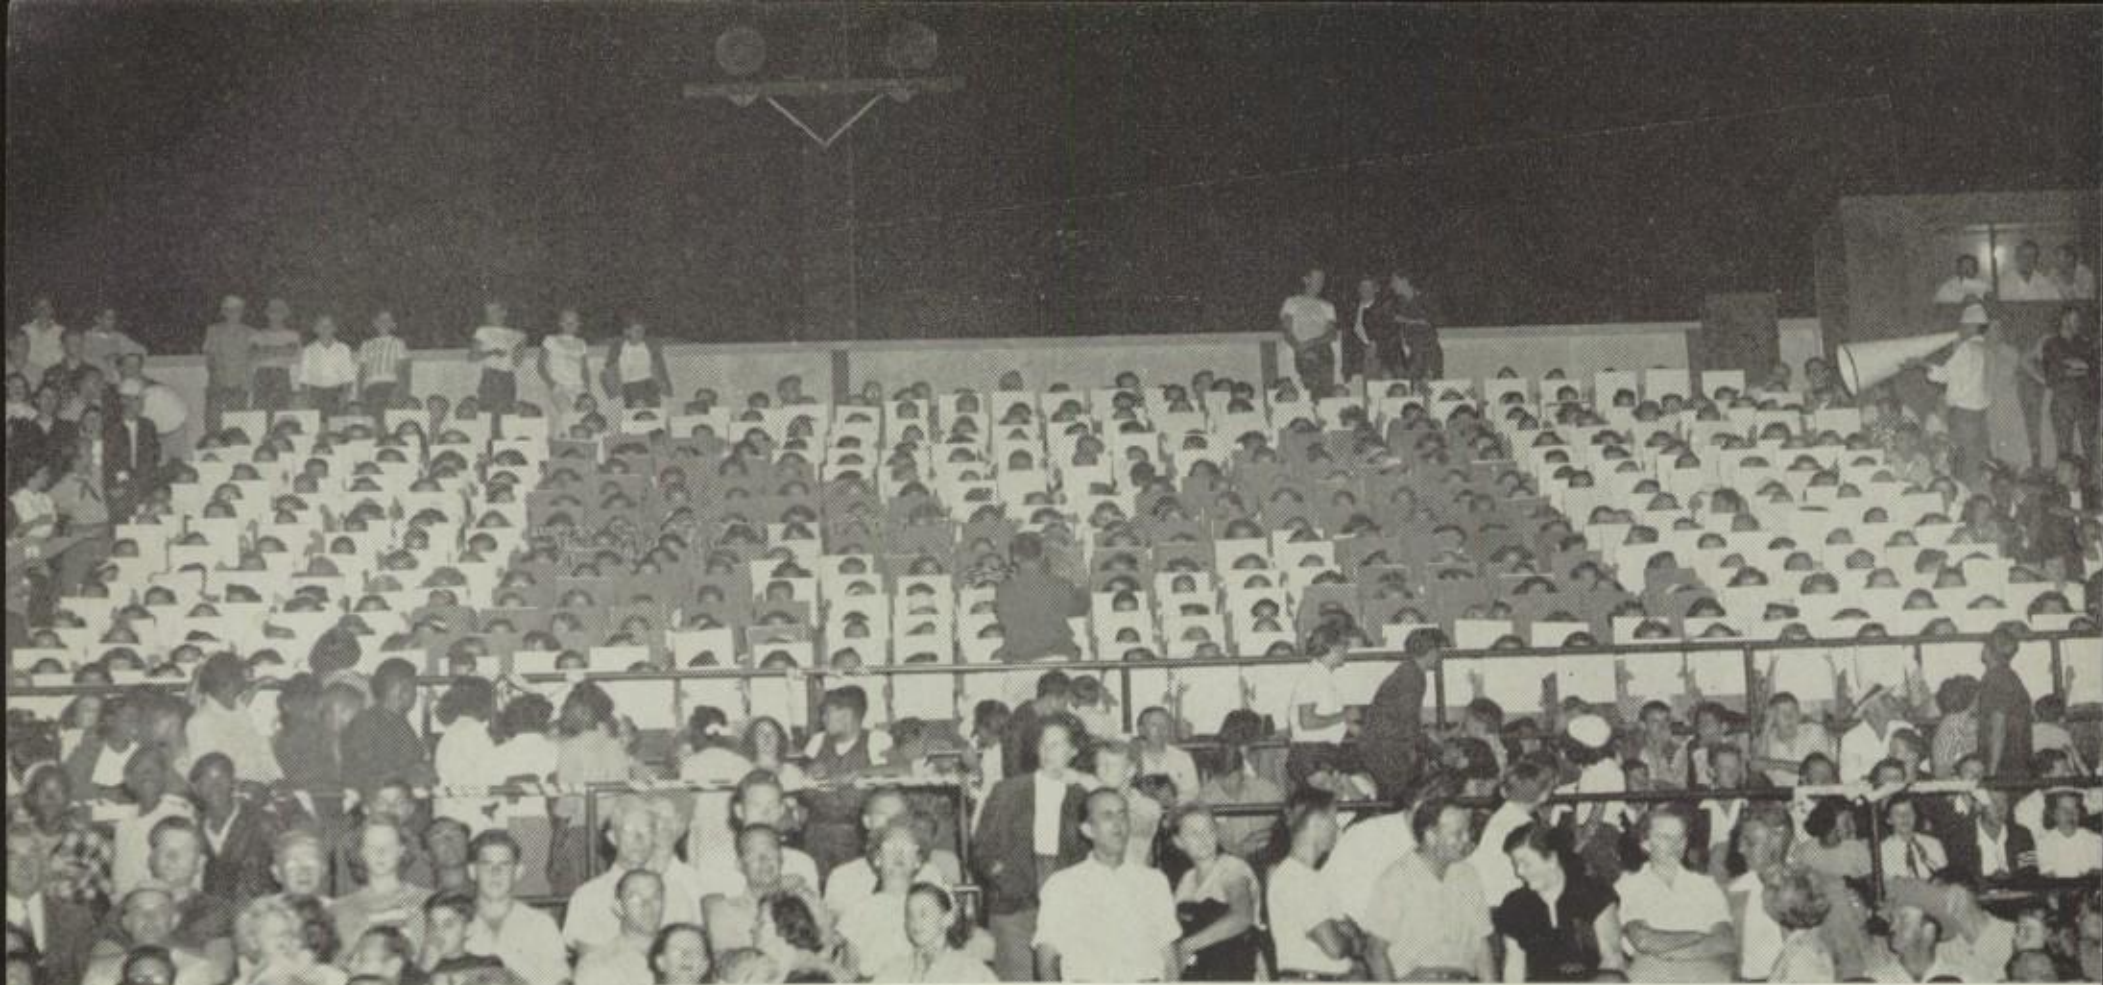

ENTHUSIASM

PEP COMMISSION

Keeping pace with the increasing number of school affairs, the pep commission has had a very active year under the leadership of Dave Knutson. The group worked diligently to plan pep rallies, set up the card section, and kept school spirit up throughout the year. They all gave willingly of their time and deserve the gratitude of the student body.

EFFORT =

PERFECTION

PEPCATS AND BAND

Working together, the Pepcats and marching band this year produced the finest football halftime activities the school has ever seen. The many new formations and routines made the student body justifiably proud of every one of them.

Mr. Evan Williams, the new band director, is to be credited with most of the success of this year's performances. Coming to us from Escondido Union High School, he added new spirit and life to the band.

The Pepcats with Carol Sharrai as their president were the cutest and peppiest ever. Mrs. Yenney again supervised the girls and did a marvelous job.

One of the cleverest routines the group did was Brass Band Boogie. This and many others will linger among our memories of the '49 football season.

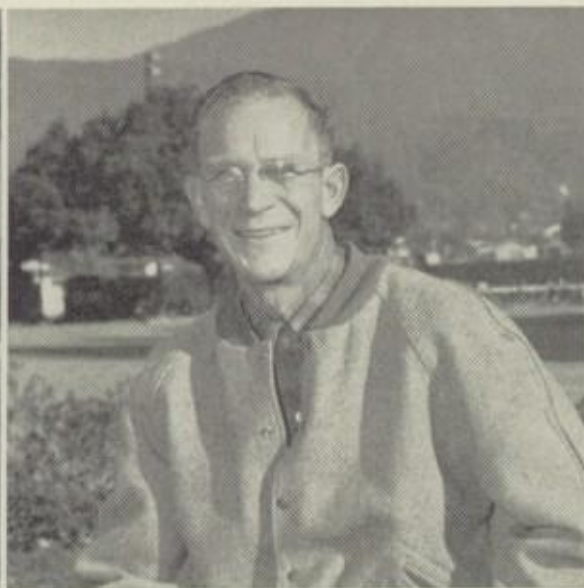

VARSITY SQUAD . . . Brawny and Brave

MAD's varsity football squad, defending Foothill League champions, had a successful grid year with six wins, but failed to retain the title. Early season victories over John Muir, Beverly Hills, John Burroughs, Covina, and Bell Gardens seemed to indicate another championship year, but the Wildcats met their first defeat at the hands of a powerful Burbank eleven. Two more losses followed . . . Glendale and the eventual league champs, South Pasadena. With the crown definitely lost, the Wildcats resharpened their claws and dealt the Glendale Hoover Tornadoes a last game defeat.

Despite the setbacks, MAD displayed marvelous school and team spirit throughout the season, taking both defeats and wins in their stride.

MEMORIES

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

An innovation this year was the establishment of the J. V. squad. With Mr. Hardy coaching, the underclassmen of the 4th and 5th string varsity had the opportunity to gain experience together with the honor of representing MAD against other schools. This arrangement gives the boys too big for Bee competition and not yet experienced enough for varsity ball a real chance to play football. It should in the coming years prove an asset to training better varsity men.

BEE BALL

Blessed with an abundance of all around talent and sparked by brilliant teamwork, our Bees narrowly missed the championship by a half game. Coach McAllister, assisted by Mr. Broaders, shaped a squad with a season record of seven wins, one tie, and one loss. Led by Captain Bob Morrow and star halfback Bob Maxwell, the Bees beat the ultimate champs, John Burroughs, 19 - 6.

CEES

With no real league of their own, Coach Olson's "mighty midgets" had a tough season this year. Losing their first four games to Mark Keppel, Excelsior, Alhambra, and Whittier, they came back with a mid-season spark and defeated Citrus 19-0. The following week they again tasted defeat at the hands of El Monte. To wind up their season in good shape they rolled over Bonita 47-0.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

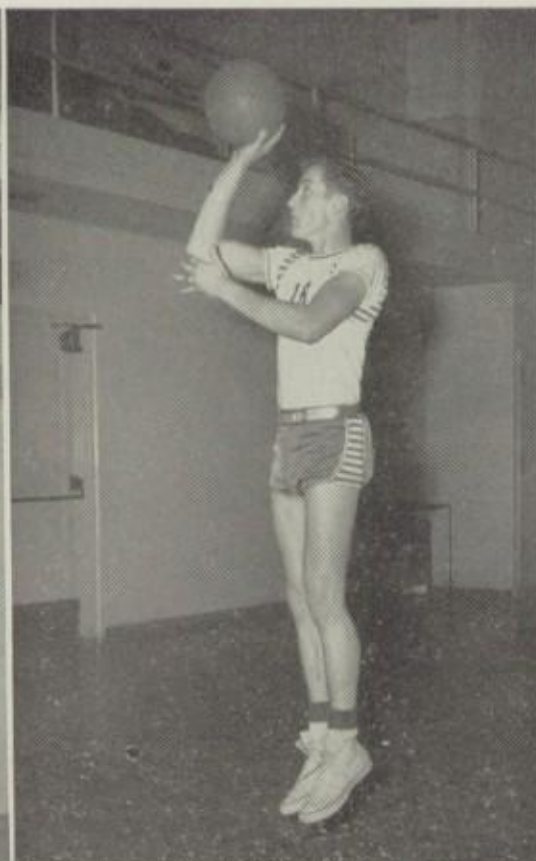

One of the best coached and smoothest functioning teams to represent MAD in its long story of basketball competition on the hardwoods was this year's Varsity Basketball contingent. When the season's final standings were posted, the Wildcat boomballers posted a 7-7 record, which was substantial enough for a tie in fourth place with the Glendale Hoover Tornadoes. Fans will remember for years to come the stunning victories the Green Tide obtained over South Pasadena, Covina, and Glendale. Shining light for the Varsity quintet this season was rangy center, Nick Mateljan. Nick raised many an eyebrow with his consistent rebound control and unstoppable pivot shot. At the close of the season he was selected for the All-League second string squad. All conceivable success for the season should be credited to Coach Keith Broaders, who conscientiously guided the team throughout the 1950 season.

BEE BASKETBALL

MAD's lightning-fast Bee melon tossers brought honor to their Alma Mater this season as they ended the league season with a co-championship. An 11 - 3 record put them on the crest of the league heap along with the Burbank Bullpups. The first five, consisting of Bob Maxwell, Steve Mateljan, Dale Hicks, Don Richardson, and Richard Humble, turned in sterling performances through the employing of Coach Broaders' fast break type of play. Spearhead of the Broader's break was flashy forward Dale Hicks. Ball-hawk Bob Maxwell stood out on defense.

CEE BASKETBALL

SKILL

DEE BASKETBALL

Coach Dink Walker's extra powerful Dee Basketball contingent retained their Foothill League championship this year as they amassed a total of four wins against no losses. Pacing the extra-lighties were smooth center Gene Bishop and speedy forwards John Briltz and John Muscat.

GOLF TEAM

The MAD linksmen have, as the annual goes to bed, run up a string of five loop victories. This impressive slate posts the Everret Wood coached Varsity definite threats for the CIF championship. To date the Green Tide's golfers claim victories over the Long Beach Wilson, Whittier, John Muir, Long Beach Poly, and Huntington Beach golf squads. A post season tournament to be held at the Lake-side Course in Long Beach will determine the CIF championship.

VARSITY TRACK

A varsity track team with a few individual stars and absolutely no depth represented the MAD Green Tide on the cinderpaths this season. As the sports section deadline nears, the Eugene McAllister coached cinder-burners have run up a string of 3 wins and 1 defeat. The Cats claim victories over Bell Gardens, Covina, and Burroughs. The lone defeat was administered by the Burbank Bulldogs in a very close meet decided by the relay. Outstanding on this year's squad were Chuck Hoggatt, and Bob Bills. Chuck rewrote a new school record in the Bulldog meet with a 15.4 running of the 120 yard high hurdles. Bob has threatened the long standing 100 yard dash mark of 10 flat with several 10.2 marks.

CEE TRACK

The perennial league threats, the Wildcat Cee Tracksters, are again headed toward league as well as CIF recognition. To date they have a season record of 6 wins against no defeats. The extra-lighties have yet to face the vaunted Glendale Dynamiters and Hoover Tornadoes in dual meets. Shining lights for Ceemen were Ross Prather, field event specialist, and the Aluton twins, Bob and Dick, who compete in the dashes and hurdle races.

BEE TRACK

The Bee scantyclads that represented MAD on the oval during the '50 campaign have thus far to their credit a record of 4 wins and 1 loss. Steve Read paces the McAllister coached bantamweights running the century and the furlong. Peter Woods has attained commendable heights in the high jump in his early season tries.

ROW 1: Dick Ford, Dick Vandervoort, Rolland Moody, Bob Nickelson. Row 2: Clark Leonard, Leon Amish, John Hightower, Milan Moody, Bunny Gillett.

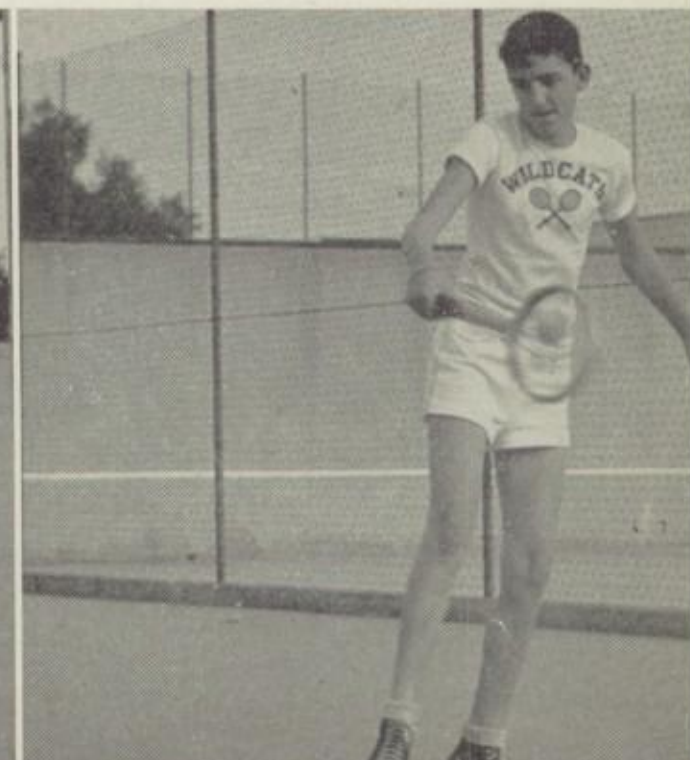

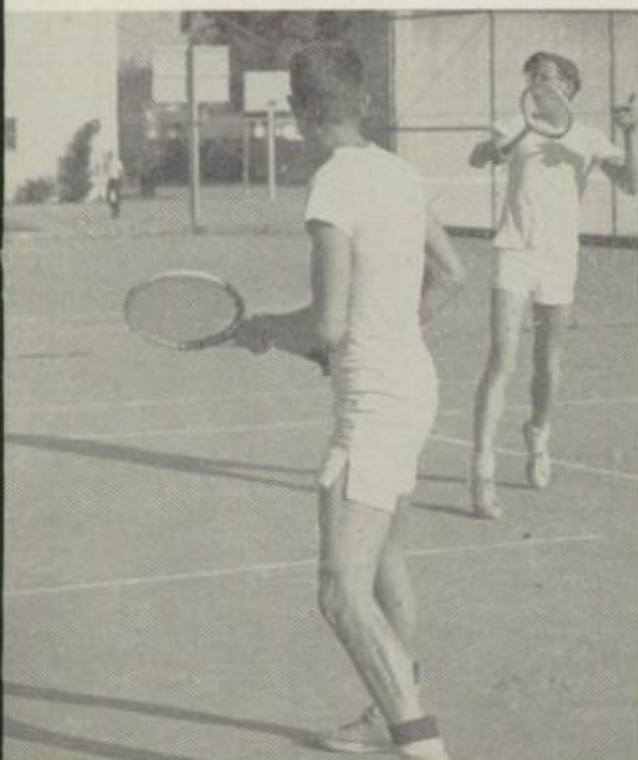

TENNIS

The MAD sports world can unhesitatingly boast of this year's Varsity tennis crew. As the Annual goes to bed, Coach Charles Copeland's wonders have chalked up a four win, two loss record, and are second in League standing to their traditional athletic rivals from South Pasadena.

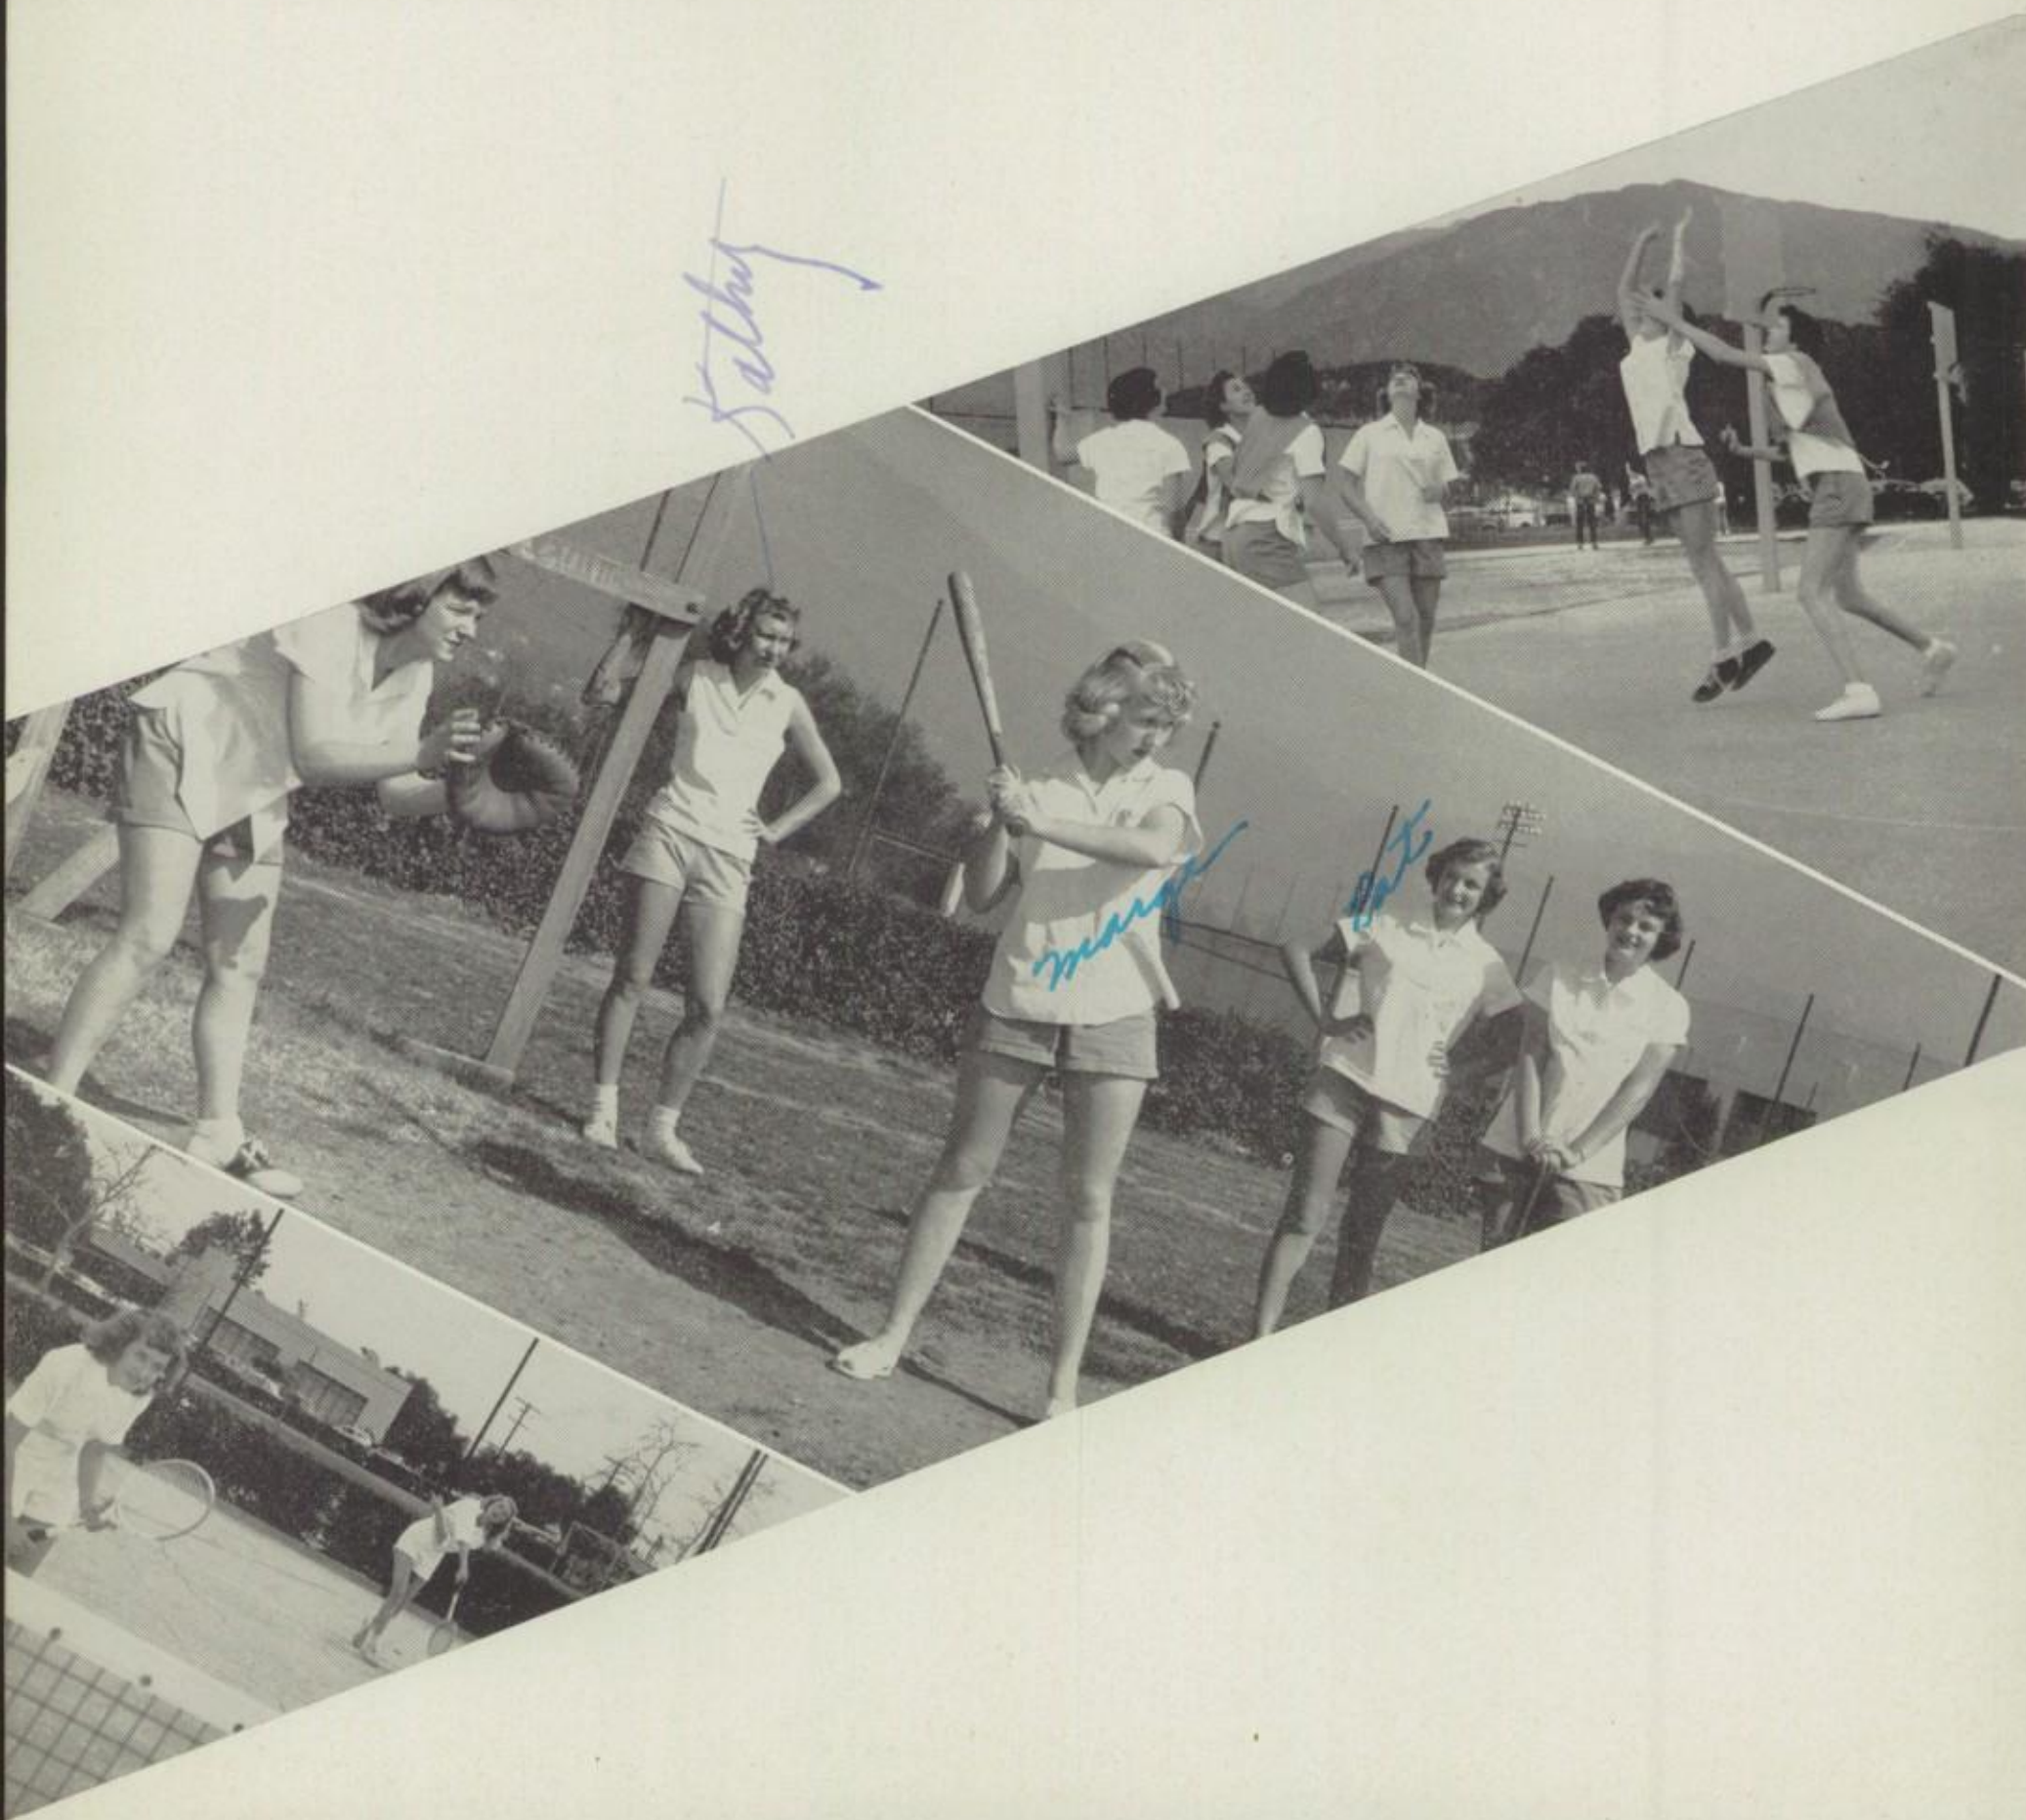

Main man of the racquet wielders thus far has been Dick Vandervoorts, who has waded through the six matches without a defeat. The doubles combo of John Hightower and Bob Nicholson follow closely behind Dick for team honors.

ROW 1: Stanford, Cross, Mowry, Walters, Carter, Binnings. ROW 2: Cokelet, Collins, Garbor, Haserot, Kennedy, Niblock, Stevens, White. ROW 3: Young, Evans, Parker, Wood, Roberts, Weitzman.

GIRLS' SPORTS

COACHES ADAMS, DARBY, BRELOS, AND YENNEY

Besides winning top honors in two annual league playdays, MAD's "glamazons" took part in many intra-mural contests and tournaments. Each gym period was enlivened by spirited games of tennis, volleyball, basketball, speedball, baseball, ping pong, badminton, croquet and archery.

Helpful and enthusiastic coaches Mrs. Thelma Yenney, Mrs. Helen Adams, Mrs. Mary Ann Darby, and Mrs. Ethel Brelos supervised and refereed the eager athletes.

Dear Chris,

It was a pleasure to go to M.A.D. because in that period of time I met the nicest girl I have ever known. If it hadn't been for Glen I'd probably would have never met you. Believe me it was a pleasure and if things work out for us I'll be seeing you after you're out of school. Good luck in the next three years and keep up the good work you've been doing in D.A.A. ~~will to sum~~ ^{it all up} I'm really proud of you. There couldn't be a cuter kid. As I've said before loads of luck.
